What others are saying about

CHRIS WIDENER

“We are selective about which speakers we utilize at our events. Chris Widener has spoken to our sales field at our corporate events and for our leaders at their regional events. Chris connects well with the audience. He tells engaging stories, teaches leadership lessons and uses humor to interact with all in attendance. Chris does a great job.”

—Angela Chrysler, President & CEO, Team National

“Chris Widener is the leader of the next generation of leadership and personal development experts.”

—Jim Rohn, best-selling author and America’s foremost business philosopher

“It’s not every day that we find leaders like Chris—a leader who possesses a true servant mentality, who has committed his entire adult life to helping individuals find success, a leader who understands the human spirit and, more importantly, knows how to lead others to perform beyond what they thought was possible. Chris Widener is that leader. He understands that in life, it’s more than just the destination that counts; it’s the journey that matters most. Chris is committed to making your journey the absolute best it can be.”

—Greg Provenzano, ACN President and Co-Founder

“Chris Widener is one of the brand-new stars on the international platform speaking circuit.”

—Denis Waitley, author of Seeds of Greatness

“Chris Widener is one of the most genuine, energizing and compelling speakers in America. I first heard about Chris because the late Jim Rohn was grooming Chris to lead the next generation of personal development experts. Those are extremely hard shoes to fill, but after hearing Chris speak, reading his books, and getting to know him personally, I know that Jim will be proud to know that Chris, with his engaging wisdom and wit, is carrying on the tradition Jim and others set in educating and challenging people in the Network Marketing Industry.”

—Richard Brooke, CEO Oxyfresh and 21Ten

“Chris Widener is one of the best speakers in America today.”

—Brian Tracy, author of Success Mastery Academy

“Chris Widener is an Arbonne favorite. Over the last seven years, Chris has spoken nearly 100 times all over the U.S. to conferences put on by our leaders. Whether it is a group of 100 or 7,000, Chris’ focus is on helping our consultants get the information they need to take their business to another level. Chris is real and down to earth. His straight-shooting style earns him the respect of the audiences he speaks to. Unlike many speakers, Chris goes the extra mile to make sure that he knows your business so he can articulate the message you are trying to get across to your consultants.”

—Rita Davenport, President, Arbonne International
